

Privacy Policy

Last updated: December 2025

This Privacy Policy explains how Guia Brechó ("the App") collects, uses, and protects your information. By using the App, you agree to the practices described below.

Information We Collect

The App may request access to certain device permissions in order to provide core functionality.

Camera Permission

The App uses the device camera only for the purpose of allowing users to capture photos or videos within the app experience. The App does not collect, store, transmit, or share any camera data without your direct action. Any images or videos you capture remain solely on your device unless you choose to share or upload them.

How We Use Your Information

The App does not collect personal data unless explicitly provided by the user. Any information you generate through features such as photo or video capture is used solely to operate the intended functionality of the App.

We do not: - Sell personal information - Share personal information with third parties - Use personal information for advertising or tracking

Data Storage and Security

All images or videos captured with the camera remain stored locally on your device unless you decide to export or share them. We implement reasonable security measures to protect your information; however, no digital system is completely secure.

Third-Party Services

The App does not integrate third-party analytics, advertising platforms, or external data processors unless explicitly stated within the App.

Children's Privacy

The App is not designed for children under 13 and does not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Your Choices

You may revoke camera permission at any time through your device settings. Some features may stop functioning without this permission.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy as needed. Any updates will be reflected within the App or on the distribution page.
